LAVACA COUNTY, TEXAS
ORDER LIFTING BAN ON OUTDOOR BURNING

WHEREAS, During the regular called meeting of the Lavaca County Commissioner's Court on August 25, 2025, the Court ratified the Burn Ban Order unanimously.

WHEREAS, In the Order issued that date, the Court authorized the County Judge the authority to release the ban when conditions allow.

WHEREAS, County Judge Keith Mudd signed an Executive Order lifting the county wide Burn Ban on December 5, 2025, and

WHEREAS, with the authority issued by the Commissioners Court of Lavaca County,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT ORDERED ON THIS 9TH DAY OF DECEMBER, 2025, I HEREBY LIFT THE COUNTY-WIDE BURN BAN.

I continue to caution all citizens of Lavaca County to exercise great caution with outdoor burning, and to assume responsibility to contact your local fire chief and have safeguards in place before attempting any burning. Any citizen who chooses to conduct a burn is liable for any and all damages caused as a result of that burn.

Keith Mudd, Lavaca County Judge
