

Government Announcement Press Release

For Immediate Release

Date: October 4, 2024; 11:00 AM

Media Contacts:

Contact: Brandy G. Stuckey

Email: BrandyS@co.lavaca.tx.us

Position: Chief Deputy

IMPORTANT BALLOT BY MAIL MAILED OUT FOR THE NOVEMBER 5TH GENERAL ELECTION

Hallettsville, Texas — Registered voters in Lavaca County who already have their 2024 Ballot by Mail Application on file with the Lavaca County Elections Department can look to receive their ballots in the mail on or before Friday, October 11th. Again, the Lavaca County Elections Administrator will mailout the first batch of ballots by mail in the next two (2) business days.

We will continue to process new Applications for Ballot by Mail throughout the next few weeks. If you don't receive your Ballot by Mail within 7-10 business days after turning in your Ballot by Mail Application, then please call the Lavaca County Elections office at (361) 798-3594.

###

About Lavaca County Elections Department

The Lavaca County Elections Department is led by Tenia (pronounced Tina) Hudson, Elections Administrator with assistance from Chief Deputy, Brandy G. Stuckey. Lavaca county has a population of 20,589 residents and serves 14,031 registered voters. Election's Mission aims to uphold a high level of professional election standards to earn and preserve public confidence in the electoral process.